POTENT MENACE.

An educated immigrant who can talk anarchy in five languages surely is a more potent menace to this country than is the poor peasant whose mind is sane, though unlettered, and whose ruggedness matches that of our early settlers.

PLEDGE CANDIDATES.

The last Kentucky Legislature voted on the prohibition constitutional amendment without obtaining a referendum of the voters. Candidates this year should be pledged not to vote on any amendment to the national constitution on which the people have had no voice, thus avoiding a repetition of the present prohibition farce, which is the pet of the wealthy and bootleggers.

TERRIBLE INDICTMENT.

That was a terrible indictment of British methods in Ireland which was brought to the attention of the members of the British Parliament by President De Valera in his letter last week. No member of Parliament can now say that he does not know what is going on in Ireland. And these things will go on just as long as Parliament continues to uphold the Lloyd George Ministry. The responsibility is not alone on the "Black and Tans," but upon every member of the British Parliament who supports the coalition government.

WHY KEPT SECRET?

At a hearing of the Senate Committee last week on the cable controversy a young man in the State Department, without the knowledge of his superiors, produced a document which disclosed more than 3,000 complaints by American business men of spying or eavesdropping by the British Government upon cable messages sent by our business men concerning trade relations with foreign business houses. Why this is kept secret from the American people is a mystery and the people should demand that their Representatives and Senators insist upon a complete exposure and explanation from the British Government. In addition, the Government officials who are shielding and toadying to John Bull should be exposed.

THE OLD CRY.

In every instance where the duplicity of the English Government is being exposed, as it is just now, the pro-English papers in this country pursue the old stop third method of trying to distract attention by exposing some supposed plot of Irish or German-Americans to embarrass the United States. Why all the cry about traitorous citizens of Irish or German descent and nothing about the colossal British propaganda now being circulated in this country and the attempt to even doctor our school books of American history. In this city the Courier-Journal and Times are ever ready to stir any body of citizens who are not friendly to England, but never cares to discover who received the millions of dollars Lord Northcliffe circulated here for British propaganda, or who is behind the movement to poison school children's minds in regard to America's glorious history in her wars with England.

GIVE JOHN BULL BLOW.

If you wish to give John Bull a truly staggering blow—and what lover of liberty does not?—then strike at his pocket. The pocket is John's tender spot, and a well aimed blow, no matter how little the force behind it, will make John squeal. This is something that Americans must not lose sight of if they wish to do a real service to the cause of Irish freedom. It is safe to say that at least one-fourth of the fire, accident and automobile insurance business of this country is done by British, and British controlled companies netting in premiums fully a quarter billion dollars per annum. Much of this money comes out of Irish-American pockets. In other words, Irish-Americans are furnishing England with a goodly part of the means to pay for the atrocities which they denounce. Again we find many of the retail houses advertising English goods; now since it would be impossible for a shopper to pick and choose, our advice to Irish-

Americans is not to patronize any house that advertises goods made in England. Strike at his pocket and you will soon reduce the bully of the nations to a condition which will be favorable to your demand for Irish liberty.

LIBERTY WOULD VANISH.

The Smith-Towner bill advocates are trying to get it rushed through the present Congress in the confusion of the closing hours. That is the only hope they have for the measure now. It is not likely that they will succeed. Opposition by such men as the Presidents of the universities of Yale, Harvard, Illinois, and other seats of learning, has opened the eyes of Congressmen to the dangers of the bill. It would establish a bureaucracy at Washington which would prove a worse tyranny than that against which we went to war in 1917. When education becomes bureaucratized, then liberty vanishes. The Smith-Towner bill provides the bureaucracy. The rest follows naturally.

Make good use of the holy season of Lent. This is a richly endowed season of grace. This is a season of spiritual renovation and rejuvenation.

BRITAIN'S DEBT TO U. S.

The largest war loan to the Allies by this country was to Great Britain, which received $4,277,000,000 upon which she has paid interest amounting to $233,357,185, and still owes interest amounting to $214,582,824. Great Britain has money to keep troops in Ireland, Persia, Mesopotamia and Egypt, her war of conquest in Mesopotamia costing two hundred millions a year, while she loans money to Greece to subsidize her armies. United States Liberty Bonds were issued to provide funds for the British loan, and if she does not pay interest on these bonds Americans will have to. If Great Britain will not pay the principal, Americans will have to. All we received out of the war was debts and experience, and hogwash England, who has grabbed everything in sight, must at least be made to pay her lawful debts to this country.

AUGUST A. BIZOT.

August A. Bizot, eighty years old, one of the best known citizens of New Albany and Southern Indiana, died late Thursday night at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital. For over half a century he had taken prominent part in every movement for city and State betterment, his naturally quick intellect and careful and intense study of both business and public questions making him one of the ablest and most useful merchants of the city. His charity was liberal and broad in the best meaning of the term. Of him it is literally true, that he knew no distinction of creed, color or nationality. Want, affliction and misery appealed to his big heart, no matter who was the subject. And it was characteristic of the man, that he never turned a deaf ear even to an enemy in need or in trouble. Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Josephine M. Bizot, and four sons, Dr. A. R. A. J., Ray and Emil Bizot, the first three being residents of Louisville and the last making his home at Memphis, Tenn. The solemn funeral mass was at Holy Cross church on Monday morning. Rev. Father Hill conducting the solemn obsequies.

HELLISH ARE BRITISH.

Great Britain's campaign against the Irish Republican movement was denounced Saturday by the Right Rev. Patrick Joseph Clune, Archbishop of Perth, Australia, upon his return to that city from Europe, says a dispatch to the London Times. While visiting in Ireland, Archbishop Clune took part in unofficial negotiations looking to the restoration of peace between the British Government and leaders of the Sinn Fein. "I say with regret and reluctance," the Archbishop is quoted as saying, "that every infamy perpetrated by Germany during her occupation of Belgium has been renewed and repeated and in some cases exceeded in Ireland. I subscribe to every word used by Eamon de Valera in his recent charges against English forces in Ireland. A black list of persons who are to be assassinated is placed in the hands of those in the pay of the crown, which is responsible for the situation. The appalling horrors of this hellish policy have not achieved their object, but have embittered moderate Irishmen." Archbishop Clune is said to have acknowledged that he had been shown the greatest kindness from leaders on both sides and declared that many upholders of Great Britain's policy had felt the Premier was anxious for a peaceful solution of the Irish problem. "Interested persons," he added, "have found a way, however, to frustrate such schemes by working in high places."

THE HOME RULE ACT.

The first step under the act is to be the issuance of writs for elections to the new Parliaments, which probably will take place three weeks afterward. The Belfast Parliament will assemble in June.

HELP RELIEF FUND.

Five hundred persons Saturday night raised $50,000 in Chicago for relief work in Ireland by paying $100 each for a dinner given by the recently organized American Committee for Relief in Ireland. The menu consisted of the usual variety of foods generally included in a formal dinner. Senator David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts, in an address, told his audience that while no American held any ill-feeling against the English people or desired to create dissension between England and the United States, this country could not maintain a hands-off policy in regard to Ireland.

THIRTEEN MURDERED.

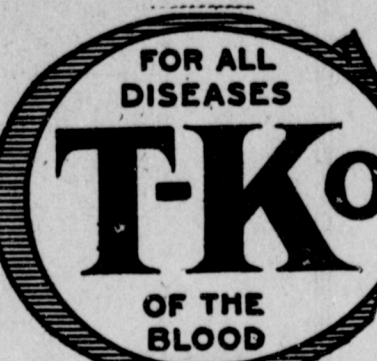

From Cork the Associated Press reports that thirteen civilians were killed and eight captured, of whom three were wounded, in an engagement Sunday afternoon in the district between Lisgoold and Middleton, County Cork, according to a General Headquarters report. A detachment of the Hampshire Regiment, surprised a party of civilians in a house on the outskirts of Middleton. The civilian forces split up, some of them remaining in the house, while the

SAVES MANY FROM DEATH.

A nurse watching over a sick priest in the residence of the Roman Catholic Archbishop of St. Johns, N. F., early Saturday discovered fire which destroyed the structure. Promptness in giving the alarm probably saved the lives of the Archbishop, Vicar General, eight other clergymen and the domestic staff. Candles being used to light the house since the electric lighting system of the city was put out of commission by last week's blizzard were said to have caused the blaze.

HOUSE PLANT TONIC.

Nitrate of soda is a good tonic for house plants that need it. Dissolve one teaspoonful of the nitrate in a quart of water and use it to water the plants every week. This tonic will produce rapid growth in young, healthy plants. Cold coffee or tea infusion is good for all kinds of ferns. Use it instead of water once a week, soaking the roots well.

TERMS FOR PEACE.

Eamonn De Valera, President of the Irish Republic, recently has been asked two questions, which are repeated herewith, together with his replies:

Q.—On what basis would Sinn Fein consider entering into peace negotiations with the British Government?

A.—We have indicated the basis time after time. Ireland's separate nationality, which implies the right of the people of Ireland to determine freely, to decide for themselves, their own form of government, and to adjust as a nation their political relationships with other nations upon a common equality of right.

Q.—Would Dail Eireann accept Dominion home rule?

A.—Those who talk like this are simply fooling with a phrase. As it is applied to Ireland the expression has no definite meaning. The essence of Dominion home rule for Canada, Australia, etc., is, as Bonar Law (Government leader in Commons) put it in the British House of Commons on March 30, 1920, "that they have control of their own destinies." Those nations can determine for themselves, and completely control their own fighting forces, and the amount they contribute to the general security of the British Empire, even to the point of neutrality, in a war in which Britain is engaged. Their right to decide for themselves, and the British connection is also definitely acknowledged. Thus the British Dominions have had conceded to them all the rights that Irish Republicans demand. It is obvious that if these rights were not being denied to us we would not be engaged in the present struggle. If there ever was a British statesman who will really desire to bring peace to the peoples of these two neighboring islands he will approach the task in the following manner:

First—Acknowledge Ireland's right as a free and independent nation as a preliminary. For England's sake as well as for Ireland's this is necessary. For any agreement made under the duress of force, or a supposed existing partnership which Ireland denies, would not be worth the paper they are written upon.

Two—Then negotiate with Ireland such a partnership or alliance as the common interests of both islands may suggest and on such terms as the peoples of both countries mutually agree upon.

We do not hold by any policy of isolation; in fact, we are a thoroughly sane and reasonable people, not a coterie of political doctrinaires, or even petty politicians, Republican or other. We are, however, for that very reason all the more immovable when it is a question of fundamental right or justice.

On March 4 the new President of the United States will enter upon the administration of his exalted office. Never was wisdom and courage more needed by the head of our great American Democracy. Every Catholic ought to offer on that day earnest prayers that God will guide our Chief Magistrate wisely and well, that the evils of the late war may be abolished and our Nation enter again upon the way of progress through justice and charity. The gravest problems call for the attention of the new President, problems both domestic and foreign, on the solution of which depends the happiness of the American people. Let a vigil light express your patriotic prayers for divine guidance and support of the President during the four momentous years that open before him. May our Blessed Mother shield him and counsel him through love for this land of her predilection.

LIGHT TO GUIDE.

On March 4 the new President of the United States will enter upon the administration of his exalted office. Never was wisdom and courage more needed by the head of our great American Democracy. Every Catholic ought to offer on that day earnest prayers that God will guide our Chief Magistrate wisely and well, that the evils of the late war may be abolished and our Nation enter again upon the way of progress through justice and charity. MAY VOTE TO GIVE AID.

Help for the Association for Relief in Ireland may be voted by the Louisville War Mothers at their next regular meeting on the first Friday in March. The question of help for Ireland was brought up at the meeting of War Mothers last week, and the question was approved by some, and will be acted upon by the full chapter at the next meeting.

CORK FIRE

arise to cleanse us of so foul a shame?

And the second comment is the cruel absurdity of the policy of frightfulness. Every one is agreed that the murder gang in Ireland is a small group of desperate men over whom the general body of the people have no sympathy.

The London public had in regard to Jack the Ripper, Lloyd George, in the House of Commons, has himself admitted this. The collective vengeance wreaked on Cork did not touch the criminals. It punished a whole population, who, whatever their political sympathies, have had no association with crime. If Cork marked a closed chapter, there would be room for hope. But there is no evidence of that. There is abundant evidence to the contrary.

Do not let England forget that the honor and good faith of the country are bound up in this matter of the Strickland report. If we are to clear ourselves before the world of complicity in the Government's suppression of the verdict of their own court, we must compel the publication of that verdict.

The truth about Cork is known to the world. We English must make a clean breast of it, publicly and officially. It is only by that act of simple honesty that we can hope to put ourselves right with the public opinion of civilized society.

AMERICA'S NEW CARDINAL.

Archbishop Dennis J. Dougherty left Philadelphia Saturday for Rome, where he will receive the red hat of a Cardinal from Pope Benedict XV. Thousands of Roman Catholics of the archdiocese marched to the station, where he boarded a special car for New York.

Accompanied by the archbishop-elect, he was met at the station by the American liner Nieuw Amsterdam later in the day. A hundred and fifty Fourth Degree members of the Knights of Columbus, in street regalia, acted as a special escort. The clerical escort to Rome included Monsignor Michael J. Crane, Vicar General of the archdiocese; the Very Rev. Joseph A. Whitaker, Chancellor, and eight rectors of the parishes of the archdiocese.

Dr. William Long, John J. Coyle and Joseph P. Gallagher, also accompanied the Archbishop to Rome.

The honor comes to Archbishop Dougherty as a reward for long and earnest services to God and Church. Archbishop Dougherty's career has been a most distinguished one.

A native of Pennsylvania, educated in the great Seminary of St. Charles Borromeo, at Overbrook, Dennis J. Dougherty was ordained to the holy priesthood May 3, 1890. He was the youngest of such remarkable ability, piety, courtesy and tact in dealing with men that when the question arose of appointing American Bishops to the sees in the Philippine Islands, after the accession of those islands to the United States, Archbishop Dougherty was appointed to the See of Manila.

In June, 1916, he was transferred to the See of New Orleans, where he was appointed to the See of Philadelphia June 14, 1923. His departure for the Philippines was the occasion of a great demonstration from the people of Philadelphia.

No Bishop ever had knottier questions to deal with than Bishop Dougherty in the distant Philippines. But so well did he succeed as Bishop of Nueva Segona that in April, 1918, he was transferred to the See of Manila.

He was appointed to the See of Philadelphia to succeed the late Archbishop Prendergast.

His arrival in his native State as Archbishop of the venerable See of Philadelphia was the occasion of a great demonstration from the people of Philadelphia.

BAPTISTS THREATEN JEWS.

The Baptist World, the official organ of the Baptist church in Kentucky, is not very friendly to the Jews, judging from the following taken from its columns:

"We have received a publication issued by a committee of Jews in New York, the purpose of which is defensive propaganda. If the Jews get in bad repute in America it will be their own fault. As a general proposition, America has felt kindly toward this remarkable race. They have been persecuted in many nations. America gave them refuge, liberty and opportunity. Very well, now let the Jew behave himself. Let him stop his effort to destroy the American Sabbath. Let him cease to prostitute the American theaters and motion pictures, which he controls, to the undermining of the character of America's youth. This he is doing by the wholesale, out of perversity or the love of money or both. The way salacious scenes, presenting the grosser phases of sex life, are lugged into the motion picture, is becoming a scandal and an outrage on American decency. We will treat these sons of the flesh of Abraham well if they will let us. But America is being forced to take cognizance of certain perversities in society at the other end of which stands the Jew. These things must go, or Americanism suffer irreparable injury. We are willing to hear the Jew's defense, but let him cease to contaminate America's life, or America will have to deal with him sternly to protect itself.

REGULATE MOVIE PICTURES.

A Catholic organization has been formed to institute a drive to purge the movie industry of its many blatant faults. Charles McMartin, of the National Catholic Welfare Council, is the leader of the movement and he has expressed the society's purposes in the following summary:

"The great business of the movies—the fourth in relative importance of our American industries—is by universal consent in a most unstable and unsatisfactory condition. The producers, the exhibitors, the artists and artisans within the industry, and more than all these, the suffering but submissive public, realize this fact. One of the principal tasks of the National Catholic Welfare Council during the coming year will be both nationally through its organization in Washington, and locally through out every city and town in the United States, through the 20,000 or more Catholic societies and the 20,000,000 Catholic people in the country, to wage an unrelenting fight against immoral and unwholesome motion pictures. We consider this one of the most urgent reconstruction tasks before the citizens of America today, and we call not only upon the Catholic citizenry of the United States, but upon every other group interested in protecting the morals, especially of our American youth, to assist us in this fight for sane and wholesome amusement, both on the spoken stage and on the screen."

COMPLETE EXHIBIT.

The smallest and most complete exhibit of the activities of a great nation will be accommodated in a single chamber of the Palais d'Invalides, Paris—the last resting place of Napoleon I.—this May. The Knights of Columbus have received official requests from the French and American Governments to contribute two items to the exhibit—one a life-size oil painting of Gen. John J. Pershing, the other a realistic model of Knights of Columbus welfare work under fire in the Argonne Forest. The K. of C. model roller kitchen in an Argonne battle scene has been completed by a New York artist. With the oil painting of Pershing and the original K. of C. war poster by Balfour Kerr, donated to the exhibit by District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier, of Boston, it will constitute the largest individual contribution to the exhibit.

INFLUENCE OF HEREDITY.

The influence of heredity, so frequently discussed in an amateurish way by writers in popular magazines, is given serious consideration in a scientific manner in an able treatise recently published by the Central Bureau of the Central Society. While the pamphlet treats awedly and principally of "infant mortality and nursing by the mother," and places the natural and moral obligation of the mother in this regard, as well as the blessings flowing to mother and child from the fulfillment of this obligation, in a strong light, it also offers a lucid and convincing exposition of the important question of heredity influences for good and for evil. The author, the Rev. Albert Muntz, S. J., of the St. Louis University, has embodied in the treatise some of the findings of the noted Jesuit biologist, H. Muckermann; the background, however, and the garb in which the treatise is clothed are distinctly American, and the application is for the present and particularly for conditions existing in our country. Those who have the care of souls entrusted to them—and Catholic parents are included in this class as well as the clergy—will undoubtedly appreciate this timely brochure; it will also prove of value to Catholic nurses, and as the basis of lectures before mothers' clubs. Orders for the pamphlet, which sells at ten cents per copy, should be sent to the Central Bureau of the Central Society, St. Louis.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. Emily Campbell, beloved wife of William J. Campbell, 1908 Duker avenue, a woman well known in all parts of the city, beloved by hundreds of friends and acquaintances, passed away following an operation at St. Anthony's Hospital. She had not been well for a month, but her age, seventy-seven years, left her unable to stand the ordeal. Mrs. Campbell was an earnest church and charitable worker and her many kind deeds endeared her to a multitude of persons. She was a woman who took a great interest and pride in her family and all who knew her honored her as an upright, Christian mother. She was frequently in attendance at the houses of the sick and was always present to offer condolence in times of mourning. Besides her husband she is survived by four sons, James J., William T., Bernard J. and Robert E. Campbell, and one daughter, Miss Jennie Campbell. The funeral was held Saturday morning with solemn requiem high mass at St. Agnes church on the Newburg road. A woman loved and respected by all who knew her and who enjoyed a wide circle of friends has passed away in the depth of Mrs. Rosalia B. Dodd, beloved wife of John Dodd, 3014 Long avenue. She was in her seventy-third year and had long been a devout and active member of St. Vincent de Paul's church, from where the funeral took place Saturday morning. Besides her husband she is survived by three sons, J. B. and George Dodd, Iowa, and Charles Dodd, San Francisco, and two daughters, Mrs. J. S. Graham and Miss Carrie Dodd, Louisville.

John T. Kavanaugh, aged forty-three, well known in Louisville railroad circles and for years with the Illinois Central, died Saturday at the home of his uncle, Patrick Glynn, 626 Floral Terrace. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Shira, and by three half sisters, Mrs. Clara Schell, Louisville, and Mrs. T. H. Bader and Mrs. A. A. Oberst, Owensboro. The funeral was held Monday morning with a requiem mass from St. Louis Bertrand's church, and was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives.

The funeral of John C. Stanfield, 3110 South Third street, whose death resulted from injuries sustained at the power house of the Louisville Railway Company, took place Sunday afternoon from Holy Name church. Rev. Father John O'Connor, the pastor, conducted the services. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nellie Stanfield; a son, John J. Stanfield; a daughter, Miss Mary Stanfield, and his mother, Mrs. Catherine Stanfield.
